Focus on the Word

The Baptism of the Lord, Year A

Isaiah 40.1-11; Titus 2.11-14; 3.4-7; Luke 3.15-22

Almighty ever-living God, who, when Christ had been baptized in the River Jordan and as the Holy Spirit descended upon him, grant that your children by adoption, reborn of water and Holy Spirit, may always be well pleasing to you. Amen.

Ordinary Time

The day following the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord marks the resumption of the liturgical season called ORDINARY TIME. There is nothing “ordinary” about Ordinary Time. Its name refers simply to the fact that weeks are listed by ordinal numbers; 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc. During Ordinary Time, we examine the ordinary ways in which we celebrate the mysteries of God’s Kingdom in our lives. Ordinary Time begins after Christmas season. It is interrupted a few weeks later by Lent and Easter; it resumes on the day after Pentecost, and continues until the beginning of a new Liturgical Year on the 1st Sunday of Advent.

During this longest of the liturgical seasons (34 weeks altogether), we reflect on the message of Christ and on our role as a Christian community, in helping to bring about the Kingdom of God in the world. We focus on the work of being the Church: sharing the mission of Jesus to proclaim God’s love.

The Lectionary

The Lectionary is the book that contains the collection of Scripture readings appointed for worship throughout the Liturgical Year, which begins on the 1st Sunday of Advent, and concludes with the week after the Feast of Christ the King the following year.

The Sunday Lectionary, which is organized in a three-year cycle of readings, is based on the three Synoptic Gospels. These are the Gospels which use a common three-year calendar for the public ministry of Jesus Christ. The years are designated A, B, or C. The year of the cycle does not change on 1 January, but on the First Sunday of Advent (usually late November) which is the beginning of the Liturgical Year.

Year A is based on the Gospel of Matthew

Year B is based on the Gospel of Mark

Year C is based on the Gospel of Luke

In Canada, the Bible translation from which the Scripture texts are taken is the NRSV – the New Revised Standard Version.
