You can work wonders !

3rd Sunday of Easter, 15 April

Living the Gospel by helping those with addictions

Scarred by an abusive childhood, Andrew became addicted to hard drugs as a young teen. His next 20 years were spent in-and-out of jail and the hospital. He finally came to ST. MICHAEL'S HOMES, an agency funded by ShareLife that offers a residential program for those struggling with substance abuse. Now Andrew is sober and equipped with coping skills. He is happy and building a new life. By supporting ShareLife, you're helping people like Andrew get their lives back on track.

April 22 is the next ShareLife Appeal Sunday. Please give generously. You can work wonders !

Sunday Mass Slips

Each Sunday, the Candidates for First Holy Communion and Confirmation faithfully submit their SUNDAY MASS SLIPS, which represent their wish to join the prayer action of all parishioners.

After the Intercessions, the Candidates bring their completed slips and gather near the Offertory Gift table at the head of the main aisle, and form a line behind the pews. First Communion Candidates are first in line, and then the Confirmation Candidates. All the Candidates walk behind the Gift Bearers (who carry the bread, wine and water) when they are led by the Servers to the Altar. The Candidates place their slips in the basket held by the Priest, make a simple bow to the Cross, and return to their pew.

Cardinal Seán O'Malley dedicates the St. John Paul II Divine Mercy Shrine in Salem, Massachusetts, and Presents a Relic of Pope Saint John Paul II

Cardinal Seán O'Malley dedicated the Saint John Paul II Divine Mercy Shrine in Salem, Massachusetts, on Divine Mercy Sunday, 8 April 2018. He also presented a relic of St. John Paul II to the Shrine. The relic was a gift to Cardinal Seán from Cardinal Stanisław Dziwisz, the long-time priest assistant to Pope St. John Paul II, and now Archbishop Emeritus of Kraków, Poland.

Are you travelling to the U.S. this Summer?

The Saint John Paul II Divine Mercy Shrine is at:

28 Saint Peter Street
Salem, Massachusetts 01970

In attendance at the dedication:

Cardinal Seán O'Malley, OFM Cap., Archbishop of Boston
Bishop Mark O'Connell, Auxiliary Bishop for the North Region of the Archdiocese of Boston
Very Reverend Pawel Bandurski,
Provincial of the Society of Christ in America
Reverend Robert Bedzinski, Rector of the Shine

St. John Paul II Shrine of Divine Mercy sits at the center of downtown Salem in the former Saint John the Baptist Church. In August 2017, as part of the pastoral planning in the Archdiocese of Boston, Saint John the Baptist Parish, a Polish parish, was suppressed and two other Salem parishes, Saint James and Immaculate Conception, were consolidated into one parish dedicated to Mary, Queen of the Apostles.

The Saint John Paul II Shrine of Divine Mercy was born in the place of Saint John the Baptist Church. The Shrine's upper church will be dedicated to the late Pope, and permanently house a relic of his blood.

Additionally, a second relic of Saint Faustina, the Polish saint who received and promoted the message of Divine Mercy, will permanently be available for public veneration at the Shrine. The lower church will be dedicated to Divine Mercy.
